The diagram shows a scatter plot with the x-axis labeled as "Semi-major Axis [AU]" and the y-axis labeled as "Inclination [deg]". The plot includes data points for different categories labeled as "Classical", "Resonant", "Scattered", "Centaur", and "Detached". The data points are color-coded for each category and distributed across the plot, indicating their respective positions in the parameter space.